

ARTICLE 13: BRANCHES

- (a) Branches of the Association may be formed and duly registered with the approval of the Executive Committee and the Registrar of Societies and they will adopt the same constitution as that of the headquarters with the following considerations:
- (i) The aims and objects will not include the formation of branches.
 - (ii) Amendments to the constitution can only be made by the headquarters of the Association in accordance with the provisions of Article 14 hereof.
 - (iii) The provisions of Article 15 hereof shall apply to branches but, in addition, branches will not be dissolved without consultation with their headquarters.
 - (iv) No branch shall be in competition with the headquarters and shall always submit annual reports to the headquarters in addition to its annual returns to the registrar of societies.
 - (v) Branches can make modifications to the main constitution to suit their needs with the approval of the headquarters and subsequent notification to the registrar of societies.
